

Wildfire Investigation Services Industrial Hygiene Consulting

Wildfires are becoming more frequent and intense, leaving widespread damage in their wake. In fact, studies show that wildfire smoke contributes to over $16 billion in property losses annually. For insurance claim and legal professionals, assessing the true impact of smoke damage is critical to resolving claims accurately and fairly.

Key Types of Damage Evaluated by Industrial Hygienists

- » Smoke & Soot Contamination
- » Air Quality & Toxic Exposure
- » Surface & Material Residue
- » Water & Mold Damage
- » Hazardous Contaminants
- » Environmental Compliance

Commercial Properties Most Susceptible to Smoke Damage

- » Hospitals and Medical Centers
- » Hotels & Resorts
- » High-Rise Office Buildings
- » Retail Centers & Malls
- » Manufacturing Facilities & Warehouses

Why Partner with Envista

With extensive experience in forensic engineering and industrial hygiene, we provide scientifically backed assessments that help insurance and legal professionals make informed decisions. Our team responds quickly to disasters, delivering reliable data and expert guidance to streamline claims resolution.

Industrial Hygiene Services for Wildfire Claims

- » On-Site Inspections & Sampling: Conducting thorough property evaluations with laboratory analysis.
- » Air Quality Testing & Monitoring: Measuring airborne contaminants post-disaster.
- » Surface & Material Assessments: Testing residues on walls, flooring, and equipment/systems.
- » Damage Documentation & Reporting: Providing expert reports to support claims and legal cases.
- » Remediation Planning & Oversight: Advising on effective smoke and soot cleanup strategies.
- » Litigation Support & Expert Witness Services: Delivering technical expertise for dispute resolution.

Contact us today to learn how our industrial hygiene consulting services can support your wildfire-related claims.